TEXAS AFFAIRS.

Cold-Blooded Murder Near Bremond—Arrival of Captured Savages at Fort Sill.

Eloquent Speech of Colonel Mills—The Marshall Fair.

GALVESTON, October 21.—A broadsheet special to the News says that on Sunday, the 17th, a man by the name of William Blagham was murdered in cold blood by a negro named Jordan Scott, two miles south of Bremond, on the Little Brazos. The negro fled, and has not been heard of since. They are in pursuit.

Colonel Mills delivered an eloquent, logical and telling speech at Bremond, yesterday, to a large audience of ladies and gentlemen. The speech was amply appreciated. Everybody here, without regard to sex or color, says "Hurrah for the Little Giant of Texas."

A special to the News from Marshall says the fair grounds buildings, burned about a month ago by an incendiary, have been replaced by a large amphitheater facing the track and capable of seating a thousand persons. It was only finished last night. Owing to fears that the building would not be ready the attendance at the opening of the fair was small.

Santanta and Big Tree, Woman's Heart and Bird Medicine, together with about one hundred and fifty squaws and papooses, arrived at Fort Sill, under guard, from Cheyenne, last Tuesday. The four chiefs were ironed. It is thought at the fort that Santanta and Big Tree will be returned to Texas, but will be held at Fort Sill until the arrival of General Sheridan. Colonel Davidson's command, consisting of six companies of cavalry and three of infantry, are at Fort Sill. The command of Generals Miles and Buell are still on duty further west.

[Note.—The information contained in the above dispatch was published in the HERALD Tuesday morning, copied from one of our exchanges. We reproduce it merely to show that all the "news thieves" do not reside in northern Texas.]

MISCELLANEOUS.

The Capitol Moving Humbug—Prairie Fires—Explosion of a Boiler.

Change of Postoffice Officials—Apprehensive About His Scalp.

NEW ORLEANS, October 21.—The failure to agree, and the final adjournment of the equipping committee at eleven o'clock last night, in no way impairs the agreement heretofore made except as to the advisory board, which can do nothing without an umpire. Colonel Packard stated to-day that the conservatives would be given two members of the returning board, as per original agreement. For a wonder neither political party to-day have any fresh outrages, "Grave apprehensions," "Serious alarms," or "Reigns of terror," to report.

Louisville, October 21.—Twenty-seven delegates are attending the capitol removing convention. A standing committee of twenty was appointed to lobby in congress for the removal of the capitol to the Mississippi valley.

ST. LOUIS, October 21.—It has transpired that the convention recently in session here, passed resolutions favoring the St. Philip canal.

CHICAGO, October 21.—By a heavy vote the case of Dr. Swing comes regularly before the synod.

FORT WAYNE, Ind., October 21.—The city is filled with smoke from prairie fires, causing much apprehension.

BALTIMORE, Md., October 21.—The boiler in Coates & Bro.'s rolling mill exploded to-day, demolishing the building. Seventy feet of smoke stacks fell, injuring two fatally and three seriously. Several hundred persons are temporarily unemployed.

One hundred delegates are attending the Baltimore synod, embracing the Presbyteries of Maryland, Virginia, Delaware and West Virginia. Dr. Marquis is moderator.

The postmaster general has accepted the resignation of E. R. Petterbridge, of Baltimore, as chief special agent of the postoffice department, with a salary of $2,500 per year, and appointed him special agent upon mail depredations, with a compensation of $2,000 per annum.

WASHINGTON, October 21.—The friends of the New Orleans correspondent of the New York Republic are somewhat apprehensive about his safety.

The supreme court to-morrow hears arguments upon the constitutionality of the cotton tax levied by treasury regulations.

The questions involving the right of states to regulate railroad fares will be advanced.

Major Hurt moves his disbursing office from Vicksburg to New Orleans.

NEW YORK, October 21.—The papers in the case of Pishop Semour are lost. It is supposed that a page mislaid them.

(colored), who waylaid Francis McNease and robbed him of fifty cents, pleaded guilty of an attempt at highway robbery, in the general sessions to-day, and were each sentenced to ten years in the state prison at hard labor.

A negro named James Horne, alias Charles Williams, was sentenced to twenty years in the state prison today for highway robbery.

CHICAGO, October 21.—The Grant-Honore wedding took place last evening. The party left immediately for St. Louis.

ST. LOUIS, October 21.—The Grant-Honore wedding party arrived here this morning from Chicago.

FOREIGN.

Defeat of the Government Forces in Buenos Ayres—Bank Suspended.

Sympathy for Von Arnim—Progress of the Spanish Strife.

LONDON, October 21.—There was a gale on the north coast last night. The wires are down.

LATER.—The gale on the north coast involves the loss of shipping, shore property and some lives.

A Times special says the reported negotiations for the surrender of a Carlist battalion, and the reported uprising in the Bosque provinces against Don Carlos, is false.

The Carlists burned a factory and some houses, valued at ten thousand dollars, within sight of the republican lines at Bilbao.

Buenos Ayres, October 21.—The rebels have defeated the government troops, and captured their commander. The bank of Entrerias has suspended.

BERLIN, October 21.—The legislative assembly proposed for Alzace and Loraine will be merely advisory.

Sympathy for Von Arnim is increasing on account of his severe personal treatment and domiciliary visits.

WE ARE SAFE IN THE ASSERTION THAT HISTORY DOES NOT AFFORD A PARALLEL TO THE MEEKNESS WITH WHICH THE SOUTHERN PEOPLE HAVE SUBMITTED TO UNPARALLELED OUTRAGES. "FROM NIGHT THAT WE COULD READ 'IN DEATH OR HISTORY,' NO SUBJUGATED PEOPLES EVER MORE QUIETLY SUBMITTED TO THEIR DEFEAT." FROM THE DAY OF THE SURRENDER TO THE PRESENT TIME THERE HAS NEVER BEEN A BAND OF MEN THROUGHOUT ALL THE SOUTH WHOSE OBJECT WAS TO MAKE A GUERRILLA WAR UPON THE GOVERNMENT.

AND, yet, what credit does the south receive for all this? Not a bit. On the contrary, if a southern man resisted insult and outrage from negro or carpetbagger, a perfect howl about "the old rebel spirit" went up throughout all the north. It has been the watchword of radicalism to which the faithful rallied more promptly than the clan of Hodierick Dhu rallied to the cross of fire.—[Courier-Journal.]

IMMIGRATION INTO TEXAS FOR THE PAST THREE OR FOUR YEARS HAS BEEN AT THE RATE OF TWO HUNDRED THOUSAND PER ANNUM. THIS YEAR, HOWEVER, BIDS FAIR TO DOUBLE THAT. EVERY ROAD LEADING TO THE STATE IS LINED WITH WAGONS, AND THE FERRIES ACROSS RED RIVER ARE BUSY TRANSPORTING TEAMS. OUR STREETS ARE DAILY CROWDED WITH STRANGERS SEEKING HOMES IN THIS GREAT COUNTRY.—[Denison News.]

WHERE IS THE MAN WITH SOUL SO DEAD THAT HE CAN GO HOME AND GO TO BED WITHOUT, IN THE FIRST PLACE, HAVING SAID, "I AM A VOTER REGISTERED?"

TRUMPET TONES.

Moderation in the use of stimulants, like avoidance of all excesses, is unquestionably praise worthy and long-enduring. All sensible persons admit this. But the vendors of non-alcoholic stimulants of undermining the reputation of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters in order to sell their own worthless trash, have thought fit to go to the length of denouncing as immoral in the extreme all its vigorous containing spirits. Now the very reverse of this is the case, the fact being that no vegetal, or bitters entirely devoid of alcohol are worth a rush, that being the one ingredient which prevents the decomposition and souring of the others. Probably no one knows better than you, Messieurs the Trumpet-Bitter Vendors, that the perfectly pure water of the Atlantic is to dissolve the volatile constituents of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters is the very best medium that could have been selected to facilitate and confirm the invigorating, productive and remedial action of the great stomachic.
